FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Royal Bancshares, Inc.; Notice of Application to Engage de novo in Permissible Nonbanking Activities

The company listed in this notice has filed an application under § 225.23(a)(1) of the Board's Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.23(a)(1)) for the Board's approval under section 4(c)(8) of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843(c)(8)) and § 225.21(a) of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.21(a)) to commence or to engage de novo, either directly or through a subsidiary, in a nonbanking activity that is listed in § 225.25 of Regulation Y as closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, such activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

The application is available for immediate inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the application has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices." Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Comments regarding the application must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than May 15, 1995.

A. Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago (James A. Bluemle, Vice President) 230 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60690:

1. Royal Bancshares, Inc., Elroy, Wisconsin; to engage de novo through its subsidiary Royal Insurance Services, Inc., Elroy, Wisconsin, in the sale of credit-related insurance and the sale of insurance in a town of less than 5,000 in population, pursuant to § 225.25(8)(i) and (iii) of the Board's Regulation Y.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, April 25, 1995.

Jennifer J. Johnson,

Deputy Secretary of the Board.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Administration for Children and Families

Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority

This Notice amends Part K of the Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Administration for Children and Families (ACF) as follows: Chapter KD, The Regional Offices of the Administration for Children and Families (58 FR 44343), as last amended, August 20, 1993. This reorganization realigns the functions in Region 2 to support their streamlining plan. This Chapter is amended as follows:

1. KD.10 Organization. Regions 1, 3 through X, are organized as follows:
Office of the Regional Administrator (KD1A, KD3A through KDXA)
Office of Financial Operations (KD1B, KD3B through KDXB)
Office of Family Security (KD1C, KD3C through KDXC)
Office of Family Supportive Services (KD1D, KD3D through KDXD)
After the end of KD.20 functions, Paragraph D, insert the following:
2. KD2.10 Organization. The ACF Region 2 Office (New York) is organized as follows:
Office of the Regional Administrator (KD2A)
Office of Management and Data Services (KD2B)
Office of Family Security (KD2C)
Office of Family Supportive Services (KD2D)

KD2.20 Functions. A. The Office of the Regional Administrator is headed by a Regional Administrator. The Office provides executive leadership and direction to state, county, city, territorial and tribal governments, as well as public and private local grantees to ensure effective and efficient program and financial management. It ensures that these entities conform to federal laws, regulations, policies and procedures governing the programs, and exercises all delegated authorities and responsibilities for oversight of the programs. The Office takes action to approve state plans and submits its recommendations to the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families concerning state plan disapproval. The Office contributes to the development of national policy based on regional perspectives for all ACF programs. It oversees ACF operations and the management of ACF regional staff; coordinates activities across regional programs; and assures that goals and objectives are carried out. The Office alerts the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families to problems and issues that may have significant regional or national impact. It represents ACF at the regional level in executive communications within ACF, with the HHS Regional Director, other HHS operating divisions, other federal agencies, and public or private local organizations representing children and families.

Within the Office of the Regional Administrator, an administrative staff assists the Regional Administrator. The staff directs the development of regional work plans related to the overall ACF strategic plan; tracks, monitors and reports on regional progress in the attainment of ACF national goals and objectives; and manages special and sensitive projects. It serves as the focal point for public affairs and contacts with the media, public awareness activities, information dissemination and education campaigns in accordance with the ACF Office of Public Affairs and in conjunction with the HHS Regional Director; and assists the Regional Administrator in the management of cross-cutting initiatives and activities among the regional components.

B. The Office of Management and Data Services is headed by a Director who reports to the Regional Administrator. The Office provides day-to-day support for regional administrative functions, oversees the management and coordination of automated systems in the region, and provides data management and statistical analysis support to all Regional Office components. Administrative functions include budget planning and execution, facility management, employee relations, and human resources development. Data management responsibilities include the development of automated system applications to support and enhance program, fiscal, administrative and quality control operations, and the compilation and analysis of data on demographic and service trends that assist in monitoring and oversight responsibilities. Statistical analysis functions include the review of state and federal sampling procedures. The Office is responsible for the effective and efficient management of internal ACF automation processes and for oversight of state systems projects for ACF programs. In coordination with other Regional Office components, it monitors state systems projects and is the focal point for technical assistance to states and grantees on the development and enhancement of automated systems.

The Office represents the Regional Administrator on administrative matters and on internal and State systems matters with ACF central office, states, contractors and grantees. It alerts the Regional Administrator to problems or issues that have significant implications for functional areas under its jurisdiction.

C. The Office of Family Security is headed by an Assistant Regional Administrator who reports to the Regional Administrator and consists of: Child Support Enforcement Division; AFDC/JOBS Division; and Youth and Family Services Division.

The Office is responsible for providing centralized program, financial management and technical administration of certain ACF formula, entitlement and discretionary programs, such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), Child Support Enforcement, Jobs Opportunities and Basic Skills Training (JOBS), Child Welfare Services, Family Preservation and Support, Foster Care and Adoption Assistance, Child Abuse and Neglect, and Runaway and Homeless Youth. It is also responsible for managing all aspects of the AFDC quality control function.

A Financial/Grants Management Officer is located in the Office of Family Security to provide expertise in business and other non-programmatic areas of grants administration and to help ensure that grantees fulfill requirements of laws, regulations, and administrative policies.

The Office establishes regional financial management priorities; reviews cost allocation plans; and makes recommendations to the Regional Administrator to 1) approve, defer or disallow claims for federal financial participation in ACF formula and entitlement programs and 2) approve or disallow costs under ACF discretionary grant programs. As applicable, it makes recommendations on the clearance and closure of audits of state and grantee programs, paying particular attention to deficiencies that decrease the efficiency and effectiveness of ACF programs and taking steps to resolve such deficiencies.

The Office represents the Regional Administrator in dealing with ACF central office, states and grantees on all program and financial management policy matters for programs under its jurisdiction. It alerts the Regional Administrator to problems or issues that have significant implications for the programs.

D. The Office of Family Supportive Services is headed by an Assistant Regional Administrator who reports to the Regional Administrator and consists of: New Jersey and Caribbean Division; and New York State Division.

The Office is responsible for providing a centralized program, financial management and technical administration of certain ACF formula, entitlement, block and discretionary programs, such as Head Start, Child Care and Development Block Grant Program, Title IV-A Child Care, and Developmental Disabilities.

A Financial/Grants Management Officer is located in the Office of Family Supportive Services to provide expertise in business and other non-programmatic areas of grants administration and to help ensure that grantees fulfill requirements of laws, regulations, and administrative policies.

The Office establishes regional financial management priorities; reviews cost allocation plans; and makes recommendations to the Regional Administrator to: (1) Approve, defer or disallow claims for federal financial participation in ACF formula and entitlement programs; and (2) approve or disallow costs under ACF discretionary grant programs. As applicable, it makes recommendations on the clearance and closure of audits of state and grantee programs, paying particular attention to deficiencies that decrease the efficiency and effectiveness of ACF programs and taking steps to resolve such deficiencies.

The Office represents the Regional Administrator in dealing with ACF central office, states and grantees on all program and financial management policy matters for programs under its jurisdiction. It alerts the Regional Administrator to problems or issues that have significant implications for the programs.

Dated: April 24, 1995.

Mary Jo Bane,

Assistant Secretary for Children and Families.

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

[Announcement 535]

Grant for Prevention of the Secondary Conditions Related to Autism and Pervasive Developmental Disorder; Notice of Availability of Funds for Fiscal year 1995

Introduction

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the availability of fiscal year (FY) 1995 funds for a grant to evaluate programs to prevent secondary conditions related to autism and pervasive developmental disorder in children.

The Public Health Service (PHS) is committed to achieving the health promotion and disease prevention objectives of "Healthy People 2000," a PHS-led national activity to reduce morbidity and mortality and improve the quality of life. This announcement is related to priority area of Diabetes and Chronic Disabling Conditions. (To order a copy of "Healthy People 2000," see WHERE TO OBTAIN ADDITIONAL INFORMATION section.)

Authority

This grant program is authorized under Section 301 and 317 (42 U.S.C. 241 and 247b) of the Public Health Service Act, as amended.

Smoke-Free Workplace

PHS strongly encourages all grant recipients to provide a smoke-free workplace and to promote the nonuse of all tobacco products, and Public Law 103-227, the Pro-Children Act of 1994, prohibits smoking in certain facilities that receive Federal funds in which education, library, day care, health care, and early childhood development services are provided to children.

Eligible Applicants

Applications may be submitted by public and private, nonprofit and for profit, organizations and governments and their agencies. Thus, universities, colleges, research institutions, hospitals, other public and private organizations, State and local governments or their bona fide agents, and small, minority- and/or women-owned businesses are eligible to apply.

Applicants must have an existing program which provides services to
